

THE LAST NIGHT BUT ONE.

Theatre, Stamford.

Messrs. Clarke, Browne, And Martin,

Respectfully announce to their Friends and the Public, that their Benefit is fixed for WEDNESDAY next, JULY 16, 1817, and solicit the Favor of their Support on that Occasion.

When will be acted, a favorite Comedy, (not performed here for several Years,) called

Wild Oats,

Or THE STROLLING GENTLEMAN..

Sir George Thunder.....Mr. ANDREWS.—Rover.....Mr. CLARKE.
Harry...Mr. OSBALDISTON.—John Dory...Mr. BROWNE.
Banks...Mr. GILES.—Gammon...Mr. MARTIN.—Sim...Mr. PRITCHARD.
Ephraim Smooth...Mr. SMITH (a Native of Stamford).
Lamp...Mr. VINING.—Trap.....Mr. HARGRAVE.
Zachariah.....Mr. EARL.
Lady Amaranth...Miss P. HARGRAVE.—Jane...Miss SIDNEY.
Amelia.....Miss PIERCE.

An EULOGIUM on FREE MASONRY,

(In Character of a Master Mason) by Brother CLARKE.

A COMIC SONG by Mr. BROWNE.

A SONG BY MISS HARGRAVE.

To conclude with the humorous Farce, (not performed here these Nine Years,) called The

Ghost in Peterboro',

OR THE AFFRIGHTED FARMER.

Sir Jeffrey Constant...Mr. ANDREWS.—Capt. Constant...Mr. OSBALDISTON.
Trusty...Mr. GILES.—Clinch...Mr. BROWNE.—Roger...Mr. SMITH.
Belinda...Miss SIDNEY.—Dorothy...Miss HARGRAVE.

BOXES, 3s.—PIT, 2s.—GALLERY, 1s.

Doors to be opened at Six o'Clock, and the Performance to begin at Seven.

► Tickets may be had of Mr. CLARKE, at Mr. SANDS', St. George's-street; of Mr. BROWNE, at Mr. ARNES', St. Peter's-hill; and of Mr. MARTIN, at Mr. CLEMENT'S, Bowling-green, Peter-hill.—Tickets and Places for the Boxes may also be had of Mr. ROOK, Stationer, High-street.

Mr. and Mrs. MANLY respectfully acquaint the Public, that their Benefit is fixed for FRIDAY the 18th of JULY; when will be performed, for the first Time here, the popular Melo-Drama of the BROKEN SWORD; and the splendid Romance of the NINTH STATUE, or the IRISHMAN IN BAGDAD, with the Adventures of the MAGIC GLASS; being the last Night.